

2020 PEST TECH TRAINING ACADEMY PROGRAMS

Management & Administration

The Operations Management program will help you understand the role of an operations manager. By learning the key decision-making skills involved in operations management, you will make handling all the activities required to create and deliver an organization's goods or services to its customers on a day-to-day basis much easier. So, start this course today and you will greatly improve your operations management skills.

Sales Management

This Sales Management program will teach you about the principles, practices, and tools involved in the selling process. In this course, you will learn the importance of effective communication, business ethics, sales techniques, presentation skills, and how to understand and connect with your customers. In a business environment sales are all important, this course teaches you how to effectively sell your product or service.

Pest Applicator

The Pest Applicator program starts you on a journey of a rewarding career in the pest control industry. We will teach you about the principles, practices, and tools involved in general pest control. In this program, you will learn pest and route management, vehicle maintenance, equipment uses, pesticide safety, customer relations, just to name a few of the skills and experience.

General Pest Control Technician

Pest Control Technician program prepares you to take control of your career. This program will teach you about the principles, practices, and tools involved in job of general pest control technician. In this process, you will learn about the principles, practices, and tools involved in general pest control. In this program, you will learn pest and route management, vehicle maintenance, equipment uses, pesticide safety, customer relations, that can lead to a stable career in pest control.

Termite Inspector

Looking for something exciting and rewarding. Termite Inspection is it! This program offers the student a chance at a "real" profession as a termite inspector. This module will teach you how to inspect residential and commercial properties for wood destroying pest. You will learn about the principles, practices, and tools involved in termites. In this program, you will learn route management, vehicle maintenance, equipment uses, pesticide safety and application, customer relations, that can lead you to a new career.