

PEST TECH TRAINING ACADEMY

Instructors

Holly McWhinnie

A proven visionary and strategic leader that translates business strategies into maximum results in private, religious, and governmental positions. Proficient in leveraging resources and developing creative initiatives. She is deeply knowledgeable in Structural Pest Control regulations, policies, and has a proven track record of implementing cutting-edge programs and projects. Dedicated to maintaining a reputation built on quality, service, and uncompromising ethics. 30+ years in business administration. She has a bachelor's degree in social engineering from CSUMB

Ed McWhinnie

Ed has been a sales leader in the pest control industry for the 8th largest company in California and Nevada for multiple years. Previous co-owner of one of the fastest growing real estate franchises. Ed is a licensed Operator/Manager with close to two decades of pest control experience and uncompromising great customer service skills.

Tiffany McWhinnie

A “out-of-the-box” thinker, Tiffany has created a “niche” for herself in the field of audio and visual industry in secular as well as religious circles. Experienced in all facets of creative marketing, she creates compelling content for every assignment. A skilled instructor in the area of technology and social media. She previously held a successful career in sales in the corporate world for several years before following her dreams in becoming an audiovisual technician. She currently holds a bachelors' degree in criminal justice from SFSU.